Camping Near a Stock Pen Waiting For Motors To Take It To Duty.

By JOHN H. REGAN.

Marathon, Texas, May 31 .- "K" company is now at Marathon awaiting orfers as to the manner of going to Terlingua. Our rolls are almost encircled in the dust and the air is racy with odors arising from the stockpens where we are camped, Since arriving at Marathon Sunday morning we have been "up in the air," as it were, wondering whether we would hike the 101 miles to Terlingua would hike the 101 miles to Terlingua he whether we would make the trip by tracks. Some confusion of orders caused us to stop at Marathon, instead of Alpine, our base, and as a consequence the trucks which were to have carried us to the border point are II miles away, Our efficers have since arranged for Il trucks at this point and the probabillity is that we will get out today. Ronds Are Bud.

Cavalrymen just in may the road in ferocious" after 12 miles is negotiated and they would stand courtmartial before biking it on foot. When we heard this we felt as if we had been steam rollered at a political convention. Frankly speaking, if our crowd had to walk, we would be walking for the next 60 days. A cavalryman just said. is took four days on horseback to Show Well in Buttalion Drill.

French Ivory KidLace Boots

THIS fascinating Boot of imported soft French ivory Kid Vamps with white washable soft Kid uppers which fits snugly around the ankles, has that touch of distinction that gives the summer costume just the right accent. The soles are light, flexible welts, which adapts them for practical street wear and prolongs the life and appearance of the shoe, as it prevents the kid vamps from skuffing so easily.

D. A. R. Present the Fing.
After the individual competitive drill the battalion fing was presented to the corps by the Rebecca Stoddert chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Texas Society. Sons of the Revolution Mrs. L. L. Robinson, regent of the Rebecca Stoddert chapter, made a brief speech of presentation on behalf of the two societies, in which she said that the flag was given in appreciation of the eplenoid preparedness for life that the military training, received in the cadel corps, would give the cadels.

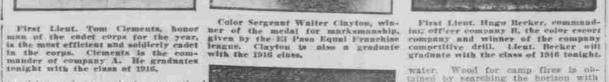

Capt I. E. McLaren, commandant, accepted the fing on behalf of the corps.

The trip by truck will perhaps be three days. We will go on war rations, each man having his havermade small canvas hags sacon, salt, coffer, sugar and hard tack.

Incidents of a Day.

We will cook in our mess kits and already have learned a number of ways for making hard tack thate like something else.

At the present writing 16 of us are assembled in a grain box car, escaping the sun heat, while the exvalrymentare passeing by with their bundles and bales of hag. Our officers are giving us all rest we can get in advance of the strenuous movement, and while not necessary, we ere sleeping.

Our first kangaroo court was held in a closed hox car when fair haired young Van Houten was tried for entage a Mexican meal out of camp ween there was plenty in camp for him. The offence was said to be against the dignity of the company. Frank Ross precided as judge, while Grady Weeks was prosecutor and I had the entagened of the out. The jury brought in a mild verdict and the judge went to obter.
